Pastor Ponders

by Pastor Brian Halverson

We are now in the Easter season. It is perhaps easy to forget that both Christmas and Easter are not just one day celebrations but a part of the larger story of Christ's birth and resurrection. In their own way, these holy days are just the beginning of a new chapter in the overall story that unfolds over time. The Easter season, over the fifty days that we observe, give us depth and meaning to what God has done and continues to do.

As Christians we live not only in the world's chronological time but also in God's time, which I would call God's "time-fulness" – a time that is fulfilled and limitless. We give thanks for the day that God has created for us, to be the people God has created us to be and to do what God has created us to do. And we are deeply thankful that we are baptized into God's eternal life, so that as these days pass, we know the glory that awaits us in the future.

Time, as we understand it, does pass and pass quickly. When I started this pastoral ministry journey thirty-five years ago, I had no idea that my pastoral work in the church would come to an end called retirement. Although I don't know what God has in store for me, I know that God has blessed me. I have served faithful congregations as pastor. As a chaplain I have been privileged to meet and spend time with patients at two different hospitals and one long-term care facility. At the beginning, I didn't know where God would lead me, but God has been with me every step of the way.

God is with you too, every step of the way. As a congregation you will enter a new phase of your mission, and the possibilities for the direction and purpose that God will provide you are exciting – and a little scary, as most transitions are. You have been faithful to God through these sixty plus years, and the Holy Spirit has great things in store for you in the next sixty years! Continue to proclaim the time-fulness of Jesus Christ, the Good News!

He is Risen! He is Risen indeed! Alleluia!

Stewardship Update

by Chris Klink

Hello, I'm Chris and I'm on your Stewardship Committee.

I am happy to report that giving for 2025 continues to be above goal. THANK YOU!

Today I want to tell you about a ministry I am involved with through St. John's - Project Move at the HOPE Center.

We have a team of four dedicated grunts – Joe Shaeffer, Gregg Everts, Brian Harms and myself – who take our turn rotating with eight other crews from neighboring churches. We head out on a Saturday morning a few times a year in one of the Hope Center trucks to pick up furniture and appliances from donors located throughout Waukesha County. We bring the items back to the large Hope Center garage where people in need can come and pick out items they need for FREE!

These households are often starting out fresh, sometimes after previously traumatic experiences, and have very few possessions. Children may be sleeping on floors with their clothes in a backpack, families may not have a way to store or cook food, and households may struggle to find money to do laundry at a laundromat.

In 2024 there were 223 households who received a total of 1407 items to help them start life anew. These include items such as beds, dressers, couches, tables, refrigerators, stoves, washers, and dryers. These items do not just meet material needs, but provide them Hope in a fresh start.

So, if you need to find a loving home for a piece of furniture or appliance you don't need anymore, call the Hope Center and schedule a pick up. And if you want to join the team – let me know. Our crew is all 50+ now and we would gladly welcome some healthy strong backs!

Thank you for making Project Move—and everything we do together at St. John's—possible!

Little Liturgical Library

We are excited to share our heartfelt thanks to each of you for your generous support in launching our new Little Liturgical Library! Located at the back of the sanctuary, this cozy corner is already making a meaningful difference for our children and youth during worship.

Thanks to your donations, encouragement, and enthusiasm, we've created a welcoming space filled with thoughtfully chosen books and quiet resources that help our young people engage with the liturgy in age-appropriate ways. Whether they're reading about the life of Jesus or exploring the meaning of baptism, these tools are helping form faith right in the heart of our worship space.

Your support is a beautiful reminder that our whole church family plays a role in nurturing the spiritual lives of the next generation. Thank you for making this vision a reality!

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

The standard opening hymn for Easter Sunday is this masterpiece by Charles Wesley. Yet surprisingly his brother John did not include it in his monumental 1780 Collection of Hymns for the Use of the People Called Methodists. The florid notes for the Alleluias remind us that sometimes singing moves beyond the mere words, adding a larger dimension to our praise.

Pastor Brian a Happy Retirement

Cake reception to follow worship

What Happens After Pastor Brian Retires?

We will see some important changes at St. John's following Pastor Brian's retirement on May 25.

As Council President, I am working to secure supply pastors for the month of June and part of July. There is usually a period of about a month and a half between when a pastor leaves, or retires, and when the interim pastor arrives. We will be in good hands at worship with a number of familiar pastoral faces leading us in worship. We will also have a pastor available in case of emergency situations.

Pastor Kristin Nielsen, assistant to the bishop, will work with us on all that is about to happen. She has said she will meet with the church council in early June to discuss calling an interim pastor. Once in place, the interim pastor will serve St. John's and work with the Mission Exploration Team (MET) as it does its congregational assessment. We will be choosing the members of the MET shortly after the interim pastor arrives. If you would like to be considered to serve on this group, please let me know.

The interim pastor will head up the work of the MET.

We will have more information on this whole process to share with you at the June 1 annual meeting. I am available if you have any questions about what is to come at St. John's.

Council Communications

The meeting was held on Monday, April 21, 2025.

Youth Endowment Fund: Linnea Logan, who is a member of the new Youth Endowment Fund Committee, came to give an update to the council. In 2024 a family at St. John's gave a generous gift to help establish this fund which will help, in an on-going fashion, with special youth ministry activities. The group would like to establish this fund through the ELCA. We will need an additional $10,000 to meet the ELCA's minimum of $25,000 for such an endowment. Further announcements about this fund, and how St. John's members can contribute to it, will be made at the June 1 annual meeting and in the months to come.

Pastor's Report: Pastor said we had a meaningful Lenten season and Holy Week. He complimented all the excellent music we heard and said that over 500 people attended the Easter Sunday worship services.

Finances: Giving has been strong through the first three months of the year. Part of the giving surplus we currently have is the result of several members who give their offerings every other year. The Council discussed whether to credit part of this to the 2026 budget year, knowing we won't receive this additional giving next year, or if we should count it all for 2025. The Council will discuss this again at its May meeting.

We also discussed giving so far in 2025 regarding the "challenge budget" motion passed at the February 1 annual meeting. After a lengthy and good conversation, we decided to wait until May, when we see what April giving is like, before making any recommendations to designate some of the year-to-date offerings to help restore budget cuts in the 2025 budget.

President's Report: Pastor Brian's exit interview, which will be led by Pastor Kristin Nielsen, assistant to the bishop, will be held on Saturday, April 26. Exit interviews are always conducted when a pastor takes another call or retires.

As council president, I am working to recruit supply pastors who will lead worship during the month of June and part of July until we should have our interim pastor in place. Pastor Carol Wasemiller has offered to serve as our emergency on-call pastor during those weeks.

Property Committee: We are waiting on a repair estimate for the roof leak in the Gathering Space. This is due to the deterioration of a section of the flat roof. This is the original roof from when this area was constructed in 1989.

Our spring clean-up day will be held on May 5.

"Pave the Way" Update: The interior signage is in place and looks very good.

We are making a deposit to the outdoor sign company. This company will work with us to apply to the Town of Brookfield to receive permission to install an electronic church sign. Should this application be denied, we will proceed with a regular static outdoor sign. This will be significantly less expensive than an electronic one. The funds are available for either project.

Nominating Committee: While we are still looking for a candidate to serve as council treasurer, the other council positions and the two positions for the Endowment Committee all have nominees who are willing to serve. They will be elected at the June 1 annual meeting.

Respectfully Submitted,

Paul Bulgerin
Church Council President
